

No on Prop 14

Title: “Elections. Increases Right to Participate in Primary Elections”

Proponents say it will increase democracy.

Facts: Louisiana had this system for 30 years (1978-2006) and only one incumbent lost. Similarly, only one incumbent lost when Washington used it in 2008.

Supporters include: Incumbents, Chambers of Commerce, Schwarzenegger

Opponents include: Chairs of the California Republican and Democratic Parties, ACLU, Green Party, Ralph Nader

More info: “California Proposition 14 (2010)” in “ballotpedia.org”

No on Prop 14

Title: “Elections. Increases Right to Participate in Primary Elections”

Proponents say it will increase democracy.

Facts: Louisiana had this system for 30 years (1978-2006) and only one incumbent lost. Similarly, only one incumbent lost when Washington used it in 2008.

Supporters include: Incumbents, Chambers of Commerce, Schwarzenegger

Opponents include: Chairs of the California Republican and Democratic Parties, ACLU, Green Party, Ralph Nader

More info: “California Proposition 14 (2010)” in “ballotpedia.org”

Supporters include: Incumbents, Chambers of Commerce, Schwarzenegger

Opponents include: Chairs of the California Republican and Democratic Parties, ACLU, Green Party, Ralph Nader

More info: “California Proposition 14 (2010)” in “ballotpedia.org”

No on Prop 14

Title: “Elections. Increases Right to Participate in Primary Elections”

Proponents say it will increase democracy.

Facts: Louisiana had this system for 30 years (1978-2006) and only one incumbent lost. Similarly, only one incumbent lost when Washington used it in 2008.

Supporters include: Incumbents, Chambers of Commerce, Schwarzenegger

Opponents include: Chairs of the California Republican and Democratic Parties, ACLU, Green Party, Ralph Nader

More info: “California Proposition 14 (2010)” in “ballotpedia.org”

No on Prop 14

Title: “Elections. Increases Right to Participate in Primary Elections”

Proponents say it will increase democracy.

Facts: Louisiana had this system for 30 years (1978-2006) and only one incumbent lost. Similarly, only one incumbent lost when Washington used it in 2008.

