

Free Speech Area Guidelines

The designated non-profit/free speech area is located at the corner of Castro and Villa (Bryant St. side) and will be marked in chalk on the street.

There's no space fee.

There are six (6) spaces available in 10' x 10' increments (one space per organization), on a first-come, first-serve basis.

There's no application process -- you just show up beginning at 9 a.m. (not any earlier) to secure a spot.

Reservations are NOT taken in advance.

We provide the space only. Tables, chairs, tents and other supplies are to be provided by the non-profit group.

Rules:

*Spaces are available to non-profit organization for informational purposes only.

*No sales will be allowed.

*No use of generators, amplified equipment, music, bullhorns, barking or yelling at festival-goers.

*Non-profit representatives must stay within the perimeter boundary of their 10' x 10' space.

*Non-profit representatives must keep designated space clean and free from any garbage or discarded material.

*Non-profit representatives must remove all waste from designated space at the end of the festival.

*All materials and supplies must fit within the designated space.

*Helium tanks are not permitted.

*Promotion of commercial products is NOT permitted.

*The festival retains the right to remove groups not in compliance with regulations.
